

“2 for Broadway”

A New Musical Revue where Jazz Meets Broadway starring
Courtenay Collins & Robert Ray

If you enjoy Broadway Tunes and Great American Jazz standards then you need to visit the Highland Playhouse’s 3rd production of the season which opened last night and plays through August 13 and catch Broadway Actor/Singer/Dancer, Robert Ray turned Producer/Director as he joins fellow New York performer and Julliard Graduate, Courtenay Collins in an intimate 90-minute, all singing - all dancing tribute to Broadway’s Best Loved Music!

Fueled by the strong voices and comedic talents of Ray and Collins, the show features a 5-piece jazz band and a 1st Act tribute to Broadway Greats, Rogers and Hart.

“It didn’t take us long to complete Act One,” says Ray. “Basically we just opened the Roger’s and Hart Songbook and the entire second section of the 1st act fell out...Funny Valentine, I Could Write a Book, You Took Advantage of Me, Bewitched, The Lady is a Tramp, Ten Cents a Dance, Johnny One Note and With a Song in My Heart.”

Also expect to hear Broadway’s most tried and true tunes from shows like Cabaret, The Producers, Chicago, Ain't Misbehavin, Smokey Joe's Cafe, Anything Goes, Chess and Ray and Collins’ signature rendition of “All I Ask of You” from Phantom.
